FROM THE DESK OF PASTOR RESNER

This year, Confirmation will be Sunday, March 30. While this may seem early relative to Palm Sunday and Easter, the calendar is in our favor as Easter is as late as it can be this year. I like the idea of Confirmation around St. Patrick's Day. The prayer of St. Patrick (Breastplate) and his glorious hymn, "I Bind unto Myself Today" (LSB 604) are great reminders of what Confirmation is all about. While there is a sense of Baptismal remembrance to Confirmation, there is a bigger sense of binding oneself with the Creeds and the doctrine of the Church. "I bind unto myself today the strong name of the Trinity. By invocation of the same, The Three in One and One in Three." (LSB 604 v. 1) The conclusion of St. Patrick's Breastplate prayer: "Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ on my right, Christ on my left, Christ when I lie down, Christ when I sit down, Christ when I arise, Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me, Christ in the mouth of everyone who speaks of me, Christ in every eye that sees me, Christ in every ear that hears me."

There are two great Latin phrases that are used to understand this relationship of Confirmation and the Church. They are 'fides quae' and 'fides qua'. The first, 'fides quae', is the faith that the Church professes - for example, The Nicene Creed. The second, 'fides qua', is the faith of the individual who professes "I believe...". Confirmation is the 'marriage' of these two phrases, thus taking the root word of confirmation, 'firm', the individual's faith is 'firmed' up by standing upon the 'firm' foundation of the Church, the faith of the prophets and apostles with Christ Jesus as the Cornerstone. The Confirmands are professing the faith handed down from the beginning of time and making it their own!

PREPARING FOR CHURCH THIS SUNDAY

In today's Gospel reading we see the calling of the first disciples - Peter, Andrew, James, and John. These four are fishermen and Jesus 'calls' them to become 'fishers of men'. As most of us read this account, we are focused on the miracle of the great catch of fish, but this event is establishing a pattern of how Jesus establishes the Church.

First, we have preaching and teaching. Second, we have Jesus commissioning these men as disciples and ultimately Apostles. Third, we have Confession as Peter cries out that he is a sinner. And lastly, we have Absolution as Jesus tells Peter to follow Him. In the Church, we are also called to leave our former selves behind and begin anew as we follow Jesus.

7TH & 8TH GRADE CALL COMMITTEE

Under the assumption that Mr. Doggett will be accepted to the seminary, we will start a call committee to replace his position. If for any reason he defers for a year we would gladly accept him back. The call committee needs your help. If you have any names to submit for the committee to consider for 7th and 8th grade, please email them to Mr Kopp at principal@midmoimmanuel.com or call the school office. Please keep the call committee in your prayers.

Along with the other co-owner congregations (Trinity, Jefferson City; Faith, Jefferson City; Grace, Holts Summit; St. John, Stringtown; & St. John's, Schubert), Immanuel has committed to supporting Calvary financially with $15 per communicant member per year. This has never been a burden on Immanuel's budget, since special offerings are received for this purpose. Please prayerfully consider contributing to this support through a designated gift in the offering plate or participating in the monthly dinners - whose proceeds also go toward this commitment. Thank you for your support of Lutheran education!

The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod
LCMS Stewardship Ministry – February 2025

“Christ’s Life, and Love, and Light”

Open our eyes Lord to see Your love’s intent,
To know with minds and hearts its depth and height
May thankfulness be days in service spent
Reflection of Christ’s life, and love, and light. (LSB 788)

As stewards enter the month of February, it is fitting that we look at the last stanza of the stewardship hymn, “Forgive Us, Lord, for Shallow Thankfulness” (LSB 788). It is in these words that we see that the heart of stewardship is indeed love. Love has flowed from our Lord to us in the person and work of Jesus Christ. This love is then to flow from us to others. Being a conduit of love is really the central task of what it means to be a steward. The Lord entrusts us with His love that reconciles us to Himself, so that we might be stewards of the Gospel reconciliation that is freely given through us to those around us.

If we don’t see this love from God to us, then through us, to others, our eyes will be closed not just to the needs of those around us. They will also be closed to the very heart of the Gospel itself. This is why the hymnist prays that the Lord would “Open our eyes, Lord, to see Your love’s intent, To know with minds and hearts its depth and height.”

Only when we are immersed in God’s Holy Word, washed in Holy Baptism’s life-giving water and fed on the holy, precious, body and blood of Jesus in the Holy Supper, will the Spirit be able to open our eyes to see the Lord’s loving intent for us, and those we know and love. Sin blinds us. It makes us think that we are the center of our world, and our pleasure is the key.

In the Word, the Lord shows us the depth and height of His love. The depth of that love is what moved Him from His throne in heaven into our world. There He would don our human flesh, walk the dusty roads of Palestine, and set His face toward Jerusalem. Once there we get to see the height of His love, as He is elevated on a Roman cross to die a death that we deserve. But that would not be the end. He would be lowered into a tomb for three days. On that third day we then see the heights of love ascended to in His resurrection. This resurrection is already ours too!

The depth and height of this love poured out on us by the Holy Spirit then is distributed through us to others. Christ’s servant love is shown in our servant love. The hymn utters the prayer of every Christian steward:

May thankfulness be days in service spent

Reflection of Christ’s life, and love, and light.

This is the task for which stewards were originally created. Bearing the image of creation and redemption, we reflect Christ’s love to those around us. The light of Christ shining through us to others is the true stewardship to which we are called. It takes place in our homes. It is lived out in our workplaces and classrooms. As we bear the life, love and light received in Word and Sacrament, we carry it out in service to our neighbor and for the glory of God!

Forgive us, Lord, when our stewardship of thankfulness is shallow or lacking! Fill us with Your life, love and light! Not just for us, but through us to those we know and love, that they may know Your life, love and light for them!
